WOUNDED WARRIOR PROJECT®

Dear caring friend,

In this time of war, few things are more vital than reaching out to America's wounded service members as you did with your generous gift of $1,000.00 in honor of Special Forces Soldiers.

For these troops, many of them young adults, your patriotic kindness means a hand up as they begin new lives after severe injuries and trauma. As a partner in the Wounded Warrior Project® (WWP) mission to honor and empower Wounded Warriors, you help these men and women move back into the mainstream of the great American life they protected for you and me.

As soon as wounded heroes leave the war zone and arrive at a hospital, you're at their bedsides hand-in-hand with Wounded Warrior Project. Through a broad spectrum of WWP programs, you stay with the wounded throughout recovery. Many people use the phrase, "Support the Troops," but you put those words into action by helping veterans wounded in the current conflicts as they work to build new lives.

Imagine a warrior who sacrificed limbs or sight in Iraq or Afghanistan now skiing down the side of a mountain, starting college, helping a fellow warrior, or beginning a new job! These images come to mind when I reflect on the power of your recent gift to WWP. I offer my gratitude to you today. You have my deepest appreciation.

Saluting Your Generosity,

Adam L. Silva
